The Electoral Board of Arlington County met at 12:00 p.m. on Wednesday, November 7, 2018, in the Azalea Conference Room, 2100 Clarendon Blvd., to review provisional ballots voted during the November 6, 2018 General and Special Elections. Present were Charlene Bickford, Chairman; David A. Bell, Vice Chairman; W. Scott McGeary, Secretary; and Linda Lindberg, Director of Elections. Also present were Howard Solodky and Jill Caiazza, representing the Arlington County Democratic Committee.

335 provisional ballots were voted during the election. Taylor Brandt, who voted in Columbia Precinct 006, was present to speak to the Board. Ms. Brandt's registration record was cancelled because she informed the Circuit Court, in response to a jury qualification questionnaire, that she no longer lived in Arlington. She stated she was temporarily away to live with her boyfriend while he was attending school, but had subsequently returned to Arlington. Ms. Lindberg explained she should have updated her registration upon her return. The Board voted to reject Ms. Brandt's ballot and she exited the meeting.

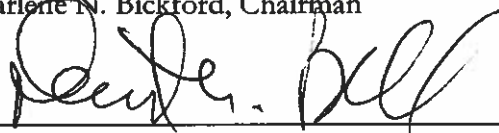

The Board reviewed ballots until 1:00 p.m. and returned at 2:00 p.m. following a short recess. The visitors did not return after the recess. The Board continued to review ballots until 4:00 p.m., then voted to recess until 10:00 a.m. on Thursday, November 8.

The Board reconvened at 10:00 a.m. on Thursday, November 8, and reviewed ballots until 12:15 p.m. They voted to recess until 1:00 p.m. on Friday, November 9, to allow time for those voted for lack of ID to provide proper ID to the Elections Office.

At 1:00 p.m. on Friday, November 9, the Board reconvened and adjudicated the remaining ballots. Present were all three Board members and Director Lindberg. 131 ballots were accepted. The Board proceeded to tabulate the ballots and complete the Statement of Results indicating ballots counted in the provisional precinct. The meeting was adjourned at 3:30 p.m.
